SERVICES DURING APRIL 2021

The church remains open for services during the current lockdown, subject to all necessary social distancing measures, the use of hand sanitizers, and the wearing of masks, unless you have an approved exemption for health reasons.

This is in line with Church of England and government guidelines and is subject to constant revision. A copy of the latest risk assessment is on display at the back of church.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SERVICES

Said Services will be held in Church at 9.30am on Wednesday mornings and will hopefully be mostly Communion Services.

The Church will remain open after the Service for private prayer.

SUNDAY MORNING SERVICES

A Service with pre-recorded music will be held in Church at 9.30am each Sunday and will be mostly Sunday Morning Worship with occasional Communion services should Priests become available.

Social Distancing means that we can only accommodate 25 attendees in the Pews and these places will be prioritised for the half of our congregation who cannot use Zoom and have been excluded during Lockdown. All Protocols issued by the Diocese for enabling services in Church will be observed.

Each Sunday Service will be followed by a ZOOM Service at 11.00am for the foreseeable future until Social Distancing allows a full return with music and singing is allowed in Church again.

ACCESS TO THE CHURCH

Please remember that until further notice, no-one is to enter the church without the prior permission of one of the churchwardens.

For access at anytime please contact:

On the Best way to run a Church Council Meeting

My dear Nephew Darren,

Thank you for inviting me to speak at your church council yesterday. I began to suspect that my theme of why Eusebius's dislike of Sabellianism led to his condemnation at the Council of Antioch in 324 was a little misjudged, when the only question I was asked after my lecture was if Eusebius was on Facebook.

I never realised how much technology is needed these days just to discuss church matters. It seemed that everyone had brought their laptop, so they could refer to all the diocesan briefing documents and reports that you mentioned. I've been in the diocese 40 years and have never heard of most of those papers. But then I find it too easy to delete the diocesan mailings, unread, with a click of my mouse.

Our church meetings are far more traditional. Since the church floor seems to have been carved out of permafrost, our meetings circulate round members' houses. This introduces a nice element of competition, as each host tries to outdo the previous one in the baking of cakes. Meetings at Colonel Drinkwater's – a more inappropriate name one cannot imagine – are the shortest, since we are always promised wine once the meeting is over. It is remarkable how unanimity is achieved on every subject within minutes, and nothing appears under "any other business".

Mrs Eddington never troubles us with minutes, largely because she can rarely read the notes she takes. She just shares with us whatever she can decipher at our next meeting. Last month, she accidentally brought her shopping list instead, and so read that out. There followed a lively discussion on whether carrots from our local shop were better than those at the supermarket. When it was found out she intended to use them in a venison casserole, endless recipes were keenly debated.

We always leave our church meetings well fed, up to date with village gossip, and totally untroubled by any church council business. And the lack of any minutes ensures that I can then make all the decisions myself, between meetings. I think you will find our system has much to be commended. Your loving uncle, Eustace

The Big Bash!

JESUS OFTEN TOLD STORIES WITH HIDDEN MEANINGS

ONE STORY WAS ABOUT A RICH MAN WHO DECIDED TO HAVE A PARTY

HE SENT OUT LOTS OF INVITATIONS

OH! NO!!

BUT PEOPLE STARTED MAKING EXCUSES

ONE MAN SAID HE HAD BOUGHT A FIELD, BUT NEEDED TO MEASURE IT

ANOTHER MAN SAID HE NEEDED TO TEST DRIVE THE OXEN HE HAS JUST PAID FOR ANOTHER MAN SAID HE HAD JUST GOT MARRIED - AND HIS WIFE WOULDN'T LET HIM OUT!

SO THE RICH MAN INVITED ALL THE POOR AND NEEDY INSTEAD.

YES - I CAN COME TO YOUR PARTY

Aston-cum-Aughton in the 1700s

During the 1700s, the population of Aston and Aughton was between 550 and 600. We know this because in the Visitation Return of 1764, Reverend William Mason reported that he had about 115 families in his parish of Aston and Aughton. Multiplying by five gives a population of about 575. The next population record we have is the census of 1841 when it was 700. During the 18th century the inhabitants of Aston-cum-Aughton parish were largely involved in farming. An examination of the parish burial register at the time shows the great majority of the working men in the parish were labourers of one sort or another.

The names of forty different farmers, five husbandmen and eight yeomen were recorded. So, a large number of small farmers, each employing farm labourers and many of the rest of the villagers were employed in trades associated with farming.

We can see six blacksmiths, two whitesmiths, one farrier, five wheelwrights, one horse collar maker, one roper and one cooper. There were also several specialist tradesmen involved in building and maintenance - eight masons, eight carpenters, one joiner, two glaziers, one plumber and two painters.

Another group of trades was more domestic - seven butchers, fourteen shoemakers, six weavers, eight tailors and one mercer. Seven were listed as servants, working for various prominent inhabitants, as well as one schoolmaster, two parish clerks and a bar-keeper; this was a toll bar keeper, not the alcoholic type!

Occupations related to Aston Hall were two coachmen, one steward, one gamekeeper, one park-keeper and one gardener. There was also a connection with the iron industry with three cutlers, a nail maker and a file cutter. There were also six colliers living in Aston, long before the pit shafts at Aston or Fence were sunk. The earliest recorded collier died in 1736. They were probably working in bell pits which we know were dug in the area.

Some villagers had dual occupations. There was a farmer and wheelwright, a carpenter and wheelwright, a tailor and weaver, a farmer and blacksmith.

Some occupations ran in families, four of the masons listed are Duckenfields,

Francis, John, Joseph and Richard and two were James and John Howell. John, William and Francis Memmott were shoemakers, John and Thomas Ryder were tailors and John and Joseph Kesteven were wheelwrights. Farming also ran in families with Stephen and Thomas Birks; George and William Gill; Benjamin, Berry and John Handley; Edmund and James Hobson; George and John Kesteven; Israel and Thomas Marshall and finally, James, Jervas, Thomas and William Whitehead.

ASTON-CUM-AUGHTON HISTORY GROUP is currently not meeting in view of the Coronavirus Pandemic. However, Heritage Open Days has been planned to take place between the 10th and 19th September 2021. Hopefully we will be able to take part this year.

Details are on the website www.astonhistorygroup.co.uk and are available from Jeff Blades (0114 287 2102) and Ann Key (0114 287 2610).

A Plea to the Community of All Saints Church

A warm welcome awaits you whenever you wish to visit our beautiful Grade 1 listed 12th Century Church. Here at All Saints Church Aston we have Services every Sunday and during the week for those people who wish to extend their faith, or cannot make our Sunday Services.

We welcome the residents of our Community. Many of our children visit and play under supervision at our various organised groups. Many of these groups and services are highlighted in this Monthly Parish Magazine.

Our church is run by the Parochial Church Council of All Saints Aston, which comprises elected members of the Congregation, Clergy and Licensed Lay members. The PCC meets every month to discuss our finances and how our money should be spent to benefit and improve our church.

These meetings cover matters from the day to day running of our church, to the safety of every person who enters our church, and the ongoing repairs and maintenance needed to ensure our church is fit for purpose.

We receive many wonderful testaments from visitors who visit our church; from those who have been to a Service, a Wedding, a Baptism, a Funeral or just decided to look around our Church when in the area or staying at Aston Hall Hotel.

Like many other organizations, our Church continues to have challenges to maintain the fabric of the building and the requirements for our Church and Community's future.

We are grateful to members of our congregation and friends who donate to assist in all that we try to do in the development and the continuing pathway work of our Church. These donations are made by a monthly bank direct debit, a weekly envelope scheme or by cash in the collection tray. All monies are used to help in the running of our church.

We hope you too would like to consider becoming part of the continuation of our work and the future of our Church by donating whatever you feel you can afford. Being a charity, if you are a tax payer each £1.00 donation you give attracts 25p from the government, which as you can understand is of great help to us.

If you would like further information on how you can help by making a monthly bank direct debit donation, by weekly envelope contribution, or a one off donation to our church we would be very grateful for you to contact our Gift Aid Secretary or our Admin Assistant.

About 700AD the people of Aston embraced Christianity and built a church: probably of wattle and wood. After the Norman Conquest in 1066 the Norman Lord erected a Hall and rebuilt the Church in Stone.

HYMNS & ANTHEMS

Many of you will know that Ian Watts produced a CD of the church choir performing Christmas carols. These were all recorded in isolation and then mixed and produced by Ian into a rather lovely CD. Together with the Choir he has now produced a collection of Hymns and Anthems Volume 1 which is available to buy on CD for £10.00 each with free local delivery, or £1.15 for postage and packing.

To purchase your copy please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202 or E-Mail charlottedarling@live.co.uk

We are very grateful to all members of the choir for giving their time and voices, to Carl Spencer for arranging physical production, to Charlotte Darling for managing the sales, and of course to Ian Watts for co-ordinating the whole thing.

The church choir is still recruiting for new members. We have vacancies in all voice parts, but especially basses and altos. If you or anyone you know might be interested please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202.

REGULAR GIVING

A commitment to regular giving is seen by many as a sign of their faith and commitment to God. We thank all who give regularly to the church and would welcome new givers to join either our regular giving envelope scheme, or to set up a standing order direct to the church's bank account.

Please contact Glyn Sands on 07835 240870 for more details. Thank you.

IAN WATTS

It is with regret that the PCC has reluctantly accepted Ian Watts' resignation as Director of Music; he will be leaving after Easter. The PCC is very grateful for Ian's valuable contribution to the musical and general life of the church. In particular throughout lockdown when he has provided a huge amount of music for use both on Zoom and in church. We wish him well for his future. The PCC will be considering the future musical needs of the church in the coming weeks.

23 April - St George of the Golden Legend

The Saint of an English Army before he was Patron Saint of England, St George may have been a soldier, but he was no Englishman. Some stories say that he was an officer in the Roman army under Diocletian, who refused to abandon his faith during the Terror, and was martyred at Lydda in Palestine about the year 300 AD – supposedly 23rd April. Over the years St George became the example of a Christian fighting-man, a powerful helper against evil powers affecting individual lives. He was the soldier-hero of the Middle Ages, of whom remarkable deeds were reported.

In the Golden Legend of the 13th century, Jacobus de Voragine gave St George a handsome write-up. The story runs thus:

One day, St George rode up to the heathen city of Sylene in Lybia, where he found the citizens in great distress. A neighbouring dragon had forced them to surrender two sheep each day for its dinner, and when the sheep gave out, two of their children; and now they were about to sacrifice the King's daughter, dressed as if for her wedding. St George encountered the little party by a stagnant lake, where the dragon lived, and persuaded the sobbing Princess to tell him why she was so miserable. At that moment the dragon appeared, looking inexpressibly revolting. St George charged forwards and drove his spear into the dragon's gaping mouth. To everyone's amazement, he tumbled the monster over and over.

Then St George borrowed the Princess's girdle, tied it round the dragon's neck, and persuaded her to lead it back to Sylene herself. The sight of her approaching with the befuddled dragon on its makeshift lead emptied the town. When the inhabitants timidly crept back, St George promised to behead the dragon if they would all believe in Jesus Christ and be baptised.

It was a most effective form of evangelism, for everybody said 'yes' at once. So, 15,000 people were baptised, and four carts were commissioned to remove the dragon's body.

St George thus became a symbol of the war against evil, and he is usually portrayed trampling the dragon of sin under his horse's hoofs. The Crusaders had a vision of him helping them against the Saracens at Antioch, during the first Crusade, and so brought the story of St George back with them from Palestine. Presently England put herself under the protection of the Saint. His day was declared a holiday in 1222. A red cross on a white field is the flag of St George.

Live in Care A Personal Perspective

During 2020 we were faced with a family situation involving an elderly relative, living in another part of the country, whose dementia had developed to the point where it was now unsafe for her to live alone at all. The level of need was a couple of steps beyond the situation where someone can be properly supported with a number of visits a day for companionship, home help and personal care. Typically, it would be time to consider care in a nursing home.

As you may already know from past columns our inability to obtain good quality care at home for other family members was one of the motivating factors behind our setting up Home Instead in Rotherham ten years ago. So, this was not something new for us. But the circumstances were new. We have experienced different standards of care home ranging from extremely poor to excellent. In practice, however good a reputation is, you can only tell how good any type of care is by maintaining regular visits.

Amongst other things this enables you to see if there are regular staff who appear to really know your relative and to observe how content and well-cared for your loved one is. Is there good attention to detail or not? During Coronavirus, such visits were either severely curtailed or not allowed at all. So, we found ourselves looking at the alternative option of Live in Care, through another branch of the franchise we operate. This opened our eyes to the advantages. We have also now introduced this service in Rotherham.

A fully trained CAREGiver is introduced to the person needing 24-hour support, along with back up support for holidays and time off. You can visit as far as any restrictions allow. You can call them on the phone or via a video link at any time. You can follow their progress on an online log. But what is even better is that a one-to-one relationship is established and the person needing support can stay at home. For us it has been like having a reliable, caring, extra family member, at just the right time.

Your loved one can get up when they want, take as long getting ready as they need, have whatever they want to eat (a very interesting subject sometimes) and watch the TV or go for a walk or even take a trip out – all one to one. What could be better especially if their memory has severely deteriorated and they have other disabilities? Eventually our family member is likely to need nursing care. This gives extra time to consider the options and avoid the potential rush to decide if there is a sudden deterioration. Especially during the last year, we are sure our relative's quality of life has improved.

If you are interested in Live in Care (or more limited support at home) for your relative in Rotherham and district please call Nela on 01709 837170 for a friendly chat.

A Prayer before the Cross (Thoughts on the Passion of Christ)

Dear Lord, my sin is mine and mine alone:
That folly of my humanness which I must own
As having moved against the best-self
You, Lord, worked within my heart,
'til now my worst-self forms the greater part
Of what I see, and you must judge.

My Lord, it is no more than I deserve
For I indeed do let old Adam hide
Within the New Man you would forge.
So, Lord, my sin, in each and every part
Betrays that loyalty displayed upon the cross
Before which I, in penitence, now plead.

Dear Lord, forgive my fall from grace
And as I look into your eyes
Restore to me the robe of love you gave
That I may walk, full face, along your way
Towards our Father's house
Wherein a joyful welcoming will say –
'My child, now you are home at last.'
