SERVICES DURING JUNE 2021

The church remains open for services during the current lockdown, subject to all necessary social distancing measures, the use of hand sanitizers, and the wearing of masks, unless you have an approved exemption for health reasons.

This is in line with Church of England and government guidelines and is subject to constant revision. A copy of the latest risk assessment is on display at the back of church.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SERVICES

Said Services will be held in Church at 9.30am on Wednesday mornings and will hopefully be mostly Communion Services.

The Church will remain open after the Service for private prayer.

SUNDAY MORNING SERVICES

A Service with pre-recorded music will be held in Church at 9.30am each Sunday and will be mostly Sunday Morning Worship with occasional Communion services should Priests become available.

Social Distancing means that we can only accommodate 25 attendees in the Pews and these places will be prioritised for the half of our congregation who cannot use Zoom and have been excluded during Lockdown. All Protocols issued by the Diocese for enabling services in Church will be observed.

Each Sunday Service will be followed by a ZOOM Service at 11.00am for the foreseeable future until Social Distancing allows a full return with music and singing is allowed in Church again.

ACCESS TO THE CHURCH

Please remember that until further notice, no-one is to enter the church without the prior permission of one of the churchwardens.

On getting to church at a social distance

The Rectory
St James the Least of All

My dear Nephew Darren,

Since your parishioners mostly live in an area of half a square mile, where their only concern in getting to church is whether to take the underpass, or to risk a dash across the ring road, you may have little understanding of the problems our folk have in travelling our long country lanes to church, especially as we are keeping our social distance from each other.

Several parishioners have decided that they can't possibly share cars even with their own spouses, as in their 15-room homes they have successfully (and in some cases, happily) avoided each other for months. So the lane outside the church has filled up each week with Mercedes nudging Audis, and Land Rovers easing in between Bentleys.

Others arrive on horseback. But they are careless about leaving their horses to graze in the churchyard, and I have had to remind them twice that flowers in memorial vases are not fodder. The horses do help to keep the grass down, but unfortunately our verger now objects to standing outside during Matins, holding the reins of half a dozen horses. He says it is not part of his job description, which only confirms my view that there is entirely too much fuss these days about having job descriptions at all.

Major Crompton's devotion to his new sit-on lawnmower has inspired him to travel to church on it. Since he is unable to uncouple the mowing apparatus, the tarmac on his two-mile drive is acquiring interesting patterns. His drive at two miles per hour along narrow lanes means he arrives leading a procession of cars with drivers given the opportunity to exercise the Christian virtue of patience.

Mrs Pendleton, on the other hand, leads a small but select group from the Mothers' Union who are all keen cyclists. They all arrive on a whoosh of fresh air, their hair in total disarray, but with pink cheeks glowing with health. Nobody in church minds sitting near them, as anyone who can manage to peddle an old three-gear bicycle up the hill to our church is most unlikely to be sickening for anything.

Finally, of course, the majority arrive on foot, having negotiated fields, stiles and assorted cattle on the way. The countryside may well praise God, but one does wish they wouldn't bring quite so much of it into church.

Your loving uncle, Eustace

HYMNS & ANTHEMS

Many of you will know that Ian Watts produced a CD of our church choir performing Christmas carols. These were recorded in isolation and then mixed and produced by Ian into a rather lovely CD. Together with the Choir he has now produced a collection of Hymns and Anthems Volume 1 which is available to buy on CD for £10.00 each with free local delivery, or £1.15 for postage and packing.

To purchase your copy please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202, or E-Mail charlottedarling@live.co.uk

We are very grateful to all members of the choir for giving their time and voices, to Carl Spencer for arranging physical production, to Charlotte Darling for managing the sales, and of course to Ian Watts for co-ordinating the whole thing.

Although in Lockdown, the church choir is still recruiting for new members. We have vacancies in all voice parts, but especially basses and altos. If you or anyone you know might be interested please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202.

Aston and Aughton in the Deanery of Handsworth. Part 1.

Medieval Dovecote at Aughton Hall

The book “The History of the Parishes and Churches in the Deanery of Handsworth in the Diocese and Archdeaconry of Sheffield”, written by the Rev. Alfred Thomas, B.D, Rector of Todwick (published in 1932) is a mine of information about the villages in this area and includes Anston, Aston, Darnall, Gleadless, Handsworth, Harthill, St. Swithun’s Sheffield, Thorpe Salvin, Todwick, Wales, Woodhouse and Woodsetts. If you are interested in the history of the villages and their churches, it is well worth a read. You should be able to find it in the local archives in Sheffield and Rotherham.

The chapter on Aston begins at Domesday, where the spelling is Estone. Rev. Thomas writes that there are in the British Isles as many as 60 Astons and 30 Estons, all from the Old English East-tun; tun meaning an enclosure or a homestead.

Aston is written in Kirkby’s Inquest of 1284 but in Commonwealth papers it is written Ashton. In the Calendar of Charter Rolls, it is described as Aston-in-Morthing. Morthen is the name of a hamlet in the parish of Whiston, and also of an undefined district in which are situated Aston, Brampton, Laughton and Morthen. The derivation of the word is thought to be Anglo-Saxon; morth, slaughter, and ing, a meadow.

Aughton, an ancient hamlet and manor in the Parish is now generally coupled with Aston as Aston-cum-Aughton. It has passed through the following variations: Actone, Acton, Hacstone, Aghton, Aeyghton, Ayghton, Awgton and Awton, the last one being the pronunciation we now use.

In the Domesday Survey of 1086, the manors of Aston and Aughton are described as follows:

Land of William de Warren.

In Estone there are 1 sokeman and 4 bordars with 1 plough. Pasturable woodland 4 furlongs in length and half a furlong in breadth. In Actone there are 1 sokeman and 3 bordars with 1 plough. Pasturable woodland 1 furlong in length and 2 perches in breadth.

Land of the Count of Mortain.

In Estone, Lepsi had 1 manor of 2 carucates and 2 bovates for geld, and 2 ploughs can be there. Now Richard (de Surdeval) has there 5 villeins and 2 sokeman with 2 ploughs. A Church is there and a priest. Pasturable woodland half a league in length, and as much in breadth. The whole manor is 1 league in length and half a league in breadth. In the time of King Edward the Confessor it was worth 20 shillings. It is now worth 8 shillings.

In Hacstone, Lepsi had 6 bovates and Grim half a carucate, and Lefchil 4 bovates, 3 manors of 1 carucate and 6 bovates for geld; and in the same place 2 sokemen had 1 carucate each for geld. In this land there can be 2 ploughs. Now Richard has there 4 villeins and 3 bordars with 1½ ploughs. Pasturable woodland 1 league in length and 11 furlongs in breadth. The whole manor is 16 furlongs in length and 12 leagues in breadth. In the time of King Edward the Confessor it was worth 40 shillings. It is now worth 10 shillings.

In the Domesday Survey, Aston is the only parish in the deanery where it is stated that there was a Church and a Priest. There was a church at Todwick but there is no mention of a priest. The large depreciation in the values of the Manors between the time of King Edward the Confessor (1042-1066) and the Survey is an indication that the devastation of the Conquest had not been repaired by the time of Domesday Survey twenty years later.

In Kirkby's Inquest, 1284-85, William de Cauntelo held Aston of Thomas Furnival for 1 fee. In the Knights' Fees of 1303, Sir William de Cantilupe held 1 Knight's fee in Aston of de Furnyvall and himself of Geoffrey Luterel. William de Cantelo paid 5 shillings for Wapentake fine and 16d. for Sheriff's aid. The interval between Domesday and Kirkby's Inquest was partially bridged over by the family of de Arches. Osbert de Arches presented the first known Rector in 1253-54. His daughter married Sir William de Cantilupe.

Sokeman : A freeman who was free to leave or sell his land, but who owed service to his lord.

Villein : The highest class of dependent peasantry, often holding between 30 and 100 acres.

Bordar : Smallholding cottagers of lesser standing than villeins.

Carucate : As much land as a team of oxen could plough in one season.

Bovate : A peasant holding of between 15 to 40 acres.

Geld : Anglo-Saxon land tax used for military purposes.

A Plea to the Community of All Saints Church

A warm welcome awaits you whenever you wish to visit our beautiful Grade 1 listed 12th Century Church. Here at All Saints Church Aston we have Services every Sunday and during the week for those people who wish to extend their faith, or cannot make our Sunday Services.

We welcome the residents of our Community. Many of our children visit and play under supervision at our various organised groups. Many of these groups and services are highlighted in this Monthly Parish Magazine.

Our church is run by the Parochial Church Council of All Saints Aston, which comprises elected members of the Congregation, Clergy and Licensed Lay members. The PCC meets every month to discuss our finances and how our money should be spent to benefit and improve our church.

These meetings cover matters from the day to day running of our church, to the safety of every person who enters our church, and the ongoing repairs and maintenance needed to ensure our church is fit for purpose.

We receive many wonderful testaments from visitors who visit our church; from those who have been to a Service, a Wedding, a Baptism, a Funeral or just decided to look around our Church when in the area or staying at Aston Hall Hotel.

Like many other organizations, our Church continues to have challenges to maintain the fabric of the building and the requirements for our Church and Community's future.

We are grateful to members of our congregation and friends who donate to assist in all that we try to do in the development and the continuing pathway work of our Church. These donations are made by a monthly bank direct debit, a weekly envelope scheme or by cash in the collection tray. All monies are used to help in the running of our church.

We hope you too would like to consider becoming part of the continuation of our work and the future of our Church by donating whatever you feel you can afford. Being a charity, if you are a tax payer each £1.00 donation you give attracts 25p from the government, which as you can understand is of great help to us.

If you would like further information on how you can help by making a monthly bank direct debit donation, by weekly envelope contribution, or a one off donation to our church we would be very grateful for you to contact our Gift Aid Secretary or our Admin Assistant.

From Poems of the Western Highlanders

9 June - St Columba of Iona

In 563 AD St Columba sailed from Ireland to Iona – a tiny island off Mull, in the Western Highlands. He brought Christianity with him.

Columba (c. 521 -97) was born in Donegal of the royal Ui Neill clan, and he trained as a monk. He founded the monasteries of Derry (546), Durrow (c.556) and probably Kells. But in 565 Columba left Ireland with twelve companions for Iona, an island off southwest Scotland. Iona had been given to him for a monastery by the ruler of the Irish Dalriada.

Why would a monk in his mid-40s go into such voluntary exile? Various explanations include: voluntary exile for Christ, an attempt to help overseas compatriots in their struggle for survival, or even as some sort of punishment for his part in a row over a psalter in Ireland. Whatever the reason, Columba went to Iona and spent the rest of his life in Scotland, returning to Ireland only for occasional visits.

Columba's biographer, Adomnan, portrays him as a tall, striking figure of powerful build and impressive presence, who combined the skills of scholar, poet and ruler with a fearless commitment to God's cause. Able, ardent, and sometimes harsh, Columba seems to have mellowed with age.

As well as building his monastery on Iona, Columba also converted Brude, king of the Picts. Columba had great skill as a scribe, and an example of this can be seen in the Cathach of Columba, a late 6th century psalter in the Irish Academy, which is the oldest surviving example of Irish majuscule writing. In his later years Columba spent much time transcribing books.

Columba's death was apparently foreseen by his community, and even, it seems, sensed by his favourite horse. He died in the church just before Matins, and it is a tribute to this man that his traditions were upheld by his followers for about a century, not least in the Synod of Whitby and in Irish monasteries on the continent of Europe.

Here is a prayer of St Columba:

Christ With Us
My dearest Lord,
Be Thou a bright flame before me,
Be Thou a guiding star above me,
Be Thou a smooth path beneath me,
Be Thou a kindly shepherd behind me,
Today and evermore.

Home Aware Sensors – Help your loved one stay safe!

How many times have you heard worried and exasperated children with older parents say something like: ‘Norah needs support at home but will not accept any’. Lack of self-care threatens health and well-being, but Norah may lack insight into the risks. Indicators of self-neglect can include: forgetfulness, poor personal hygiene, appearing unkempt, an empty fridge, out of date food, weight loss, unsanitary conditions, a neglected home, hoarding, unwillingness to seek medical help, low mood, anxiety and unexplained bruises from suspected falls.

It is wrong to force support upon people. Sometimes establishing one to one companionship can help break the ice on support as can a ‘shopping trip for the heavy stuff’; but not always. Unobtrusive technology can help bridge the gap by providing hard evidence on what Norah really needs.

So, if the response is ‘I don’t need any help’ Home Aware Sensors can provide peace of mind which, even the most reluctant loved one, agrees is ‘a good thing’. From their perspective where Smart sensors are properly installed and ‘that is that’. There are no cameras involved. The data generated is sent to an easy-to-use App with clear explanatory charts and warning alerts if necessary. The family can tell that Norah is up and about and has:

- * Been into the kitchen and to the toilet.
- * Boiled the kettle and opened the fridge.
- * Used the microwave at lunch or teatime.

Furthermore, the family might see that:

- * Norah been to the toilet far more than usual today – Is she okay?
- * Norah hasn’t left the living room all afternoon and has been sitting in her chair for hours – is her mobility declining?
- * Norah has been in the bathroom over an hour. Has she fallen? An alert would be sent.
- * Norah’s room temperature is too hot or too cold. An alert will be sent.
- * Norah has been up a lot in the night, going through her house. No wonder she is always sleepy.

The ongoing data from each sensor generates important ‘joined up’ information providing hard evidence of actual patterns of behaviours. If all is well that is great peace of mind. If not, then maybe it is time to add one to one support as well?

We have seen how Home Aware can, for instance show that someone is not moving from their favourite chair all day long after breakfast. Without the hard evidence it is harder to explain to them why some actual support might be needed for, such as meals, drinks, reminders to go to the toilet and take medication. Hopefully, this provides a useful insight into what our Home Aware Service offers.

If you have any questions on Home Aware, or are interested in Live in Care (or more limited support at home) for your relative in Rotherham and district please call Nela on 01709 837170 for a friendly chat.

THANK YOU!

I am sure there will be many of you missing our weekly Parent and toddler group "Praise and Play". We hope to be able to re-open in September; Regulations permitting.

Sadly, our lovely Praise and Play leader Anne Moss, who many of you will know well has decided to step down from this role. She has certainly earned herself a rest after serving in this role for 16 years and attending as a Mum for 19 years!

We are so grateful for her loving service for all of these years.

Lauren Crowther-Bilham has kindly volunteered to take over the leadership of this group from September. If you are interested in helping with Praise and Play in the future please contact our Children's Minister Beth Henshaw at Beth@thehenshaws.net

Suitable levels of Safeguarding will be required.
