Press one for vicar, two for curate....12 for prayer....

The Rectory
St James the Least of All

My dear Nephew Darren,

Now you have got your new telephone system in the parish, I shall not be calling you again. I refuse to wait for ten minutes every time I ring to have to listen to the cycle of 'press 1 for the vicar, 2 for the curate, 3 for the secretary', until we end with '12 for requests for prayer.' I was tempted to leave a message on 12 to ask that the wretched machine would break down, but then realised I would have to call a second time to leave a message on 13 for making a confession.

And if I have to listen one more time to someone playing 'Thine be the glory' on one finger on an electric organ while I am 'on hold' I will have him excommunicated. At least you have the grace not to ask me not to hang up, as my call is important to you. I would even warm to your system if a voice occasionally said that they couldn't care less whether I hung up or not, as my call was utterly irrelevant to them.

Those poor people who have to wait to reach 7 for leaving messages regarding marriages might as well leave a second message on 8 for baptisms, and save on a large phone bill in months to come. As for 9 for funerals, entire families could be born, marry and die before they reach that one. And may I suggest that your car parking attendant who stuck a note on my windscreen telling me not to park there again is given the number 666.

My own answerphone tells people firmly that the machine does not accept incoming messages, and that I only answer personally on Thursdays between 10am and 12 noon, provided nothing better has turned up. Alternatively, they could write me a letter which may (or may not) be answered, at my convenience.

As for the few who have got hold of my mobile number, my response is to say that I am just about to enter a tunnel and then to switch it off. Callers from other parts of the country now believe that the parish of St James the Least is honeycombed by mile-long tunnels, making communication all but impossible.

You can now be assured that your new system means you will be contactable at any moment, wherever you happen to be. But don't call me to complain and expect to receive sympathy; I shall be just about to enter a tunnel.

Your loving uncle, Eustace

Meditation on the Good Use of Sickness

Lord, You are good and gentle in all Your ways;
and Your mercy is so great that not only the blessings
but also the misfortunes of Your people are channels of Your compassion.

Grant that I may turn to You as a Father in my present condition
since the change in my own state from health to sickness brings no change to You.

You are always the same, and
You are my loving Father in times of trouble and in times of joy alike.

ALL SAINTS ASTON NOTICEBOARD

At its June meeting, PCC confirmed that the time of the Sunday morning service in church will revert to 10:00am with effect from Sunday 27 June. Regular weekly Zoom services will cease from that date, although there will be periodic services on Zoom, some of them streamed from church. Details will be provided in plenty of time before these events.

The Wednesday morning service in church remains at 09:30am.

REGULAR GIVING

A commitment to regular giving is seen by many as a sign of their faith and commitment to God. We thank all who give regularly to the church and would welcome new givers to join either our regular giving envelope scheme, or to set up a standing order direct to the church's bank account.

Please contact Glyn Sands on 07835 240870 for more details. Thank you.

HYMNS & ANTHEMS

Many of you will know that Ian Watts produced a CD of our church choir performing Christmas carols. These were recorded in isolation and then mixed and produced by Ian into a rather lovely CD. Together with the Choir he has now produced a collection of Hymns and Anthems Volume 1 which is available to buy on CD for £10.00 each with free local delivery, or £1.15 for postage and packing.

To purchase your copy please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202, or E-Mail charlottedarling@live.co.uk

We are very grateful to all members of the choir for giving their time and voices, to Carl Spencer for arranging physical production, to Charlotte Darling for managing the sales, and of course to Ian Watts for co-ordinating the whole thing.

Although in Lockdown, the church choir is still recruiting for new members. We have vacancies in all voice parts, but especially basses and altos. If you or anyone you know might be interested please contact Chris Ward 07949 186202.

The Big Bash!

JESUS OFTEN TOLD STORIES WITH HIDDEN MEANINGS

ONE STORY WAS ABOUT A RICH MAN WHO DECIDED TO HAVE A PARTY

HE SENT OUT LOTS OF INVITATIONS

OH!
NO!!

BUT PEOPLE STARTED MAKING EXCUSES

ONE MAN SAID HE HAD BOUGHT A FIELD, BUT NEEDED TO MEASURE IT

ANOTHER MAN SAID HE NEEDED TO TEST DRIVE THE OXEN HE HAS JUST PAID FOR ANOTHER MAN SAID HE HAD JUST GOT MARRIED - AND HIS WIFE WOULDN'T LET HIM OUT!

SO THE RICH MAN INVITED ALL THE POOR AND NEEDY INSTEAD.

HYMNS OF THE

A Plea to the Community of All Saints Church

A warm welcome awaits you whenever you wish to visit our beautiful Grade 1 listed 12th Century Church. Here at All Saints Church Aston we have Services every Sunday and during the week for those people who wish to extend their faith, or cannot make our Sunday Services.

We welcome the residents of our Community. Many of our children visit and play under supervision at our various organised groups. Many of these groups and services are highlighted in this Monthly Parish Magazine.

Our church is run by the Parochial Church Council of All Saints Aston, which comprises elected members of the Congregation, Clergy and Licensed Lay members. The PCC meets every month to discuss our finances and how our money should be spent to benefit and improve our church.

These meetings cover matters from the day to day running of our church, to the safety of every person who enters our church, and the ongoing repairs and maintenance needed to ensure our church is fit for purpose.

We receive many wonderful testaments from visitors who visit our church; from those who have been to a Service, a Wedding, a Baptism, a Funeral or just decided to look around our Church when in the area or staying at Aston Hall Hotel.

Like many other organizations, our Church continues to have challenges to maintain the fabric of the building and the requirements for our Church and Community's future.

We are grateful to members of our congregation and friends who donate to assist in all that we try to do in the development and the continuing pathway work of our Church. These donations are made by a monthly bank direct debit, a weekly envelope scheme or by cash in the collection tray. All monies are used to help in the running of our church.

We hope you too would like to consider becoming part of the continuation of our work and the future of our Church by donating whatever you feel you can afford. Being a charity, if you are a tax payer each £1.00 donation you give attracts 25p from the government, which as you can understand is of great help to us.

If you would like further information on how you can help by making a monthly bank direct debit donation, by weekly envelope contribution, or a one off donation to our church we would be very grateful for you to contact our Gift Aid Secretary or our Admin Assistant.

About 700AD the people of Aston embraced Christianity and built a church: probably of wattle and wood. After the Norman Conquest in 1066 the Norman Lord erected a Hall and rebuilt the Church in Stone.

EDUCATION IN SWALLOWNEST

Swallownest School

Swallownest, being a much “younger” village than either Aston or Aughton, had no school until 1893. Before then, the children of Swallownest who wished to receive an education, had to walk to either the Aston or the Aughton Schools.

In 1893 a Board School was built in Swallownest, in accordance with the 1870 Education Act, which had brought the state into education, created School Boards and raised the school leaving age to eleven. This first school was the smaller building of the two that are still in use as a school on Rotherham Road. There were two departments in the school, an infants’ department and a girls’ department. Although housed in the same building they were run quite independently and each had its own Headmistress.

The children stayed in the infants’ department until the age of six or seven when the girls were transferred to the girls’ department and the boys went to Aston School. The first entry in the 1893 logbook made by the Headmistress, Miss Mushet, records:- “1893 Oct 30 M. Mushet commenced duties here as mistress of the Infants School. The discipline is very weak, carelessness and inattention prevail in every class.” The school roll of registered children grew very quickly and the school became too crowded for the number of children who attended. In 1907 some children were moved to the Methodist School Room, which is attached to the chapel on Rotherham Road.

A further school was badly needed and in 1908 building began on another school next to the infants' and girls' school. The 1902 Education Act had recommended Secondary Education under Local Authority Control and this new school was to become the Swallownest Senior Mixed School.

In 1909 the girls' department at Swallownest closed and the girls were transferred to the Swallownest Senior Mixed School. The former girls' department became a Junior Mixed School and the infants remained a separate department.

In 1923 the infant and junior mixed departments merged to become the Swallownest Junior and Infant School in the smaller building. The larger building became known as Swallownest Secondary Modern School. The entry in the infants log book reads "This school ceases to be a separate department. It is now combined with the junior department and the school is now known as the Junior Mixed and Infants School."

In 1957 the Junior Mixed and Infant School took over the Senior School building and both were under one Head Teacher. This school continues today, having had over the years a great deal of modernisation.

The pupils from the Senior School moved to a newly built school on Aughton Road, Swallownest known as Swallownest County Secondary School. In 1962 this school amalgamated with Woodhouse Grammar School and changed its name to Aston Woodhouse High School. Further building work was carried out in 1965 and in 1974 the school became Aston Comprehensive School. More building work was done in 1996 to accommodate the growing population. In 2011 it converted to Academy status and is now known as Aston Academy.

4 August : Sithney - The Saint who preferred mad dogs to women

You know how some men find women's interest in romance and clothes hard to cope with? Well, Sithney (or Sezni) should be the patron saint of all such men.

According to a Breton folk legend, Sithney was a hermit of long ago, minding his own business, when one day God told him that he was going to make him the patron saint of girls. Sithney was horrified. He foresaw a future where thousands of young women were forever plaguing him to find them good husbands and fine clothes... the thought of it appalled him. So Sithney begged God for some other job, something more peaceful, than dealing with young women.

“Very well,” said God. “You can look after mad dogs, instead.”

Sithney replied cheerfully: “I’d rather have mad dogs than women, any day.” And so it was. Since that time, young women have pestered other saints to bring them husbands and fine clothes, while sick and mad dogs have been taken to drink water from the well of St Sezni, patron of Sithney, near Helston in Cornwall.

31 August : Raymond Nonnatus

Raymond Nonnatus (1204 – 40) is a good patron saint for anyone who does not take life for granted. The account of his own life begins with the story of how his mother died just before his birth, and of how Raymond was somehow extracted from her dead body just in time to save him. (‘Nonnatus’ means ‘not born’).

Raymond grew up in Portello, Catalonia and became a monk, joining the Mercedarian Order. Perhaps because of his gratitude for his own life having been spared, Raymond developed a passionate desire to see other people set free to live the lives God had given them. Whatever the reason, Raymond made the difficult and dangerous journey out to Algeria in order to redeem many slaves from a living death. So passionate was he to free them, that he even offered himself as a ransom for others’ liberation.

While in Algeria, Raymond preached Christianity to the Muslims, and was put into prison, before eventually being sent back to Spain. The Pope sent for him, but Raymond was so weakened by his suffering in Algeria that he died on the way to Rome. But by then Raymond was content. Just as his life had been given back to him, so he had used it to give life back to others.

28 August : Augustine of Hippo - A Christian for all Seasons

After St Paul, who was the most influential Christian writer ever? St Augustine of Hippo (354 – 430), whose feast-day is on 28th August. He lived and wrote in a time of social and spiritual chaos. The Roman Empire was collapsing, the world was about to slide into the dark ages and the Church was under serious threat from both heresies within and paganism without.

What St Augustine wrote at this time helped the Church both to avoid perversions of Christianity, and to stand strong and unafraid amongst the violent tumult of the times. His writings held sway over Christianity for the next 15 centuries or so, and still influence us heavily today.

Augustine was born at Tagaste, in modern Algeria. His father was a pagan, but his mother, Monica, was a Christian. After studying rhetoric at Carthage to become a lawyer, Augustine instead became a scholar-philosopher. He abandoned Christianity for Manichaeism, and lived with a mistress for 15 years. He moved to Rome and then Milan to teach rhetoric, but slowly grew disenchanted with Manichaeism.

After a long interior conflict, vividly described in his ‘Confessions’, Augustine was converted and baptised a Christian in 386-7. He returned to Africa in 388, and joined some friends in establishing a quasi-monastic life. He was ordained priest in 391, and four years later became coadjutor-bishop of Hippo. From 396 until his death in 430 he ruled the diocese alone.

Augustine had a brilliant mind, an ardent temperament and a gift for mystical insights. Soon his understanding of the Christian Revelation was pouring forth in his many voluminous writings.

So what did he write? Most famous is ‘The Confessions’, the sermons on the Gospel and Epistle of John, the De Trinitate and the De Civitate Dei. This last, ‘The City of God’, tackles the opposition between Christianity and the ‘world’ and represents the first Christian philosophy of history.

Many other works were undertaken in his efforts to tackle various heresies: Manichaeism, Pelagianism, or Donatism, and led to the development of his thought on Creation, Grace, the Sacraments and the Church.

Augustine’s massive influence on Christianity has mainly been for the good. Few others have written with such depth on love, the Holy Trinity and the Psalms. (The preamble to the marriage service in the BCP is closely based on Augustine.) But his views on Predestination and some of his views on sex (that it is the channel for the transmission of Original Sin) have since been mainly ignored by the Church.

As bishop, Augustine fearlessly upheld order as the Roman Empire disintegrated around him. By the time of his death, the Vandals were at the very gates of Hippo.

THANK YOU!

I am sure there will be many of you missing our weekly Parent and toddler group "Praise and Play". We hope to be able to re-open in September; Regulations permitting.

Sadly, our lovely Praise and Play leader Anne Moss, who many of you will know well has decided to step down from this role. She has certainly earned herself a rest after serving in this role for 16 years and attending as a Mum for 19 years!

We are so grateful for her loving service for all of these years.

If you are interested in taking over the leadership or helping with Praise and Play in the future please contact our Children's Minister Beth Henshaw at Beth@thehenshaws.net

Suitable levels of Safeguarding will be required.
